

DOS DÉUS FUMAT

→ DIP

Dos Déus Dip, 15% vol., is an extreme vermouth, inspired by Islay whiskey and American bourbon. A vermouth with strength and as diabolical an edge as the DIP, a dark infernal wolf-like beast that terrorized the villagers of Tarragona, and that was believed to suck the blood of its victims.

Product details

- ▶ Made following the Scottish distilling tradition of toasting the plants using charcoal smoke and organic peat, which serves to dry the plants and add flavour to them.
- ◀ Blended with Priorat wines to produce a new vermouth.
- ▶ Refined using the Tennessee bourbon method, leaving the vermouth to rest in new, extra-toasted 200-litre American oak barrels.
- ◀ To enjoy on its own with ice or in cocktails.

Tasting notes

Nose: Intense with caramelized, smoky and iodized notes.

Palate: Notes of liquorice, cinnamon, candied pear, smoky and toasted notes, very complex and pleasant on the palate.

Finish: Long with smoky notes on a background of caramelized fruit.
